

1-a Oh, Taste and See

Kenneth Dissmore

Bernice Lundin

1. Oh, taste and see that God is good; His best He free - ly gives
2. His might - y hand con - trols the storm; His voice will calm the sea;
3. The hand of God is nev - er short Nor far a - way His ear,
4. The Lord will bless the hand that sows The pre - cious gos - pel seed;

1. That who - so - ev - er will may come And who - so will may live.
2. He watch - eth o'er His lit - tle ones Wher - ev - er they may be.
3. He slum - bers not by day or night, Why should we ev - er fear?
4. He watch - eth o'er the whit - ened fields, And sees the ur - gent need.

1. The fount of life is o - pen To cleanse and beau - ti - fy;
2. He keep - eth in temp - ta - tion, That none need ev - er fall.
3. A - mid pain and mis - for - tune, Look to the God a - bove,
4. Oh, who will go to har - vest, In ech - o to His will,

1. The liv - ing wa - ters free - ly flow, Thy soul to sat - is - fy.
2. In time of war He is our peace, For He is Lord of all.
3. Who tak - eth e'en thy small - est woes, And giv - eth thee His love.
4. The rip - ened sheaves to gath - er in, The heav'n - ly gar - ner fill?
