

1. As the morn - ing a - wakes with the freshness of dew, Lord, a - wak - en Thy
 2. When the world so ap - peal - ing is lur - ing a - way, With the man - y, en -
 3. Pre - cious Lord, make us will - ing Thy love to o - bey, Ev - er read - y to
 4. Sat - is - fy not with rich - es of sil - ver or gold, Let us not with the

1. peo - ple with courage a - new. May Thy Spir - it di - vine be the guide of our
 2. - tic - ing, to wander a - stray, May Thy won - der - ful love firm - ly an - chor our
 3. do what the Master would say. As the an - gels in heav - en o - bey thy com -
 4. man - y earth's van - i - ties hold, For the things we may gath - er so quick - ly de -

Chorus: Then a song from the depths of our soul we can

Fine

1. soul, For the choic - es of life will our char - ac - ter mold. Help us dai - ly the
 2. soul To the shel - ter of heav - en in - side of the fold. As the pil - lar of
 3. - mand, May the hearts of Thy peo - ple con - form to Thy plan. In the shadow of 4. - cay, And the beauties of earth ver - y soon pass a - way. May the hand of the sing, To the One we a - dore who is Je - sus the King.

D. S. al Fine

1. pur - pose of life to ful - fill, As we walk in the shadow of good and of ill.
 2. fire turned the night in - to day, Blessed Lord, be the comfort and joy of our way.
 3. eve - ning or heat of the day, Or in struggles of bat - tle, oh, turn not a - way.
 4. Sav - iour our help - er re - main Till the bride of the Saviour the heav - ens ob - tain.