

1. By the way-side I was beg-ging, Poor and blind as I could be,
 2. He's the fount of liv-ing wa-ter, Bread of Life so rich and free.
 3. Side by side we walk to-geth-er In the radiance of His word,
 4. Naught in life or death can sev-er What is mine in Christ to share.

1. When the Lord, so un-der-stand-ing, Spoke the word that I could see.
 2. On the cross, He paid the ran-som; By His blood I now am free.
 3. Fel-low-ship that knows no measure, In the king-dom of our Lord.
 4. He is mine, and mine for-ev-er, For there is no part-ing there.

Chorus

No one could ev-er do what Je-sus did for me, Giv-ing His life to make me ful-ly whole. No one could ev-er be what Je-sus is to me: He is the an-swer to my soul.
